Notes:

- The amount of tuition fees indicated is for 30 credits hours on the undergraduate programs and for 21 credit hours on the graduate programs. Any additional credits will be charged extra, according the cost per credit hour of the current academic year.
- No student will be allowed to register for the following semester unless they pay the tuition fees of one semester in advance, prior to the beginning of the semester.
- In order to comply with Immigration regulations, students will need to submit a minimum payment to the University of €3,500 (Application fee €52, Immigration application fee €86, International student guarantee €350, and estimated tuition fees €3,012).
- Any additional balance, after adjustment of tuition fees, will be transferred towards the tuition fees of the following semester. No refund will be given to students for any credit balance remaining in their account.
- The cost of the Intensive English program is €2,050 and the students are eligible to a 30% reduction, i.e. the tuition fees will be €1,435. Students who will need to take the Intensive English program will be charged with this amount. The remaining balance will be transferred against the tuition fees of the following semester.
- The tuition fees of the Hotel Management program of Cyprus College are fixed, irrespective of the number of credit hours students register for.
